WE republish in another column from the N. C. Daily News a translation of the annual report of the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company extending over a period between the 9th August, 1877, to the 29th July last. The report is shorter than usual. and it is noticeable that while expressing a desire that shareholders should peruse and careful to give very meagre details and leave a great deal to be taken on trust. The report, in short, is vague, and would be pronoutced extremely unsatisfactory by European shareholders. The company is being worked on a system which has some cardinal errors, and it could not exist long but for the support it receives from the Government. Not a word, for instance, is said in the report about depreciation, and so we can only conclude that nothing has been allowed for it. What could be more fatuous than for a steamer company to go on declaring dividends without writing off anything for depreciation of stock? It is idle to suppose that the company's steamers can be set down at the same value at which they were purchased. It is an unfailing rule with foreign steamship companies to write off a certain amount every year for depreciation, and unless this be done, the shareholders may some fine day have wake up to the fact that their stock is not worth a tithe of the sum set down in paper, that their security is bad, and their shares at a serious discount. The ignorant may be deluded and kept in a sort of fools' paradise for years, but sooner or later the true position of the company must become clearly understood. To say that the dividend is paid out of profits when no provision has her return voyage for Liverpool the disease been made for depreciation is simply to mislead; it is paying dividends out of capital. proved fatal. Whether the duties thus enumerated qualify a man for post of manager of a great commercial company may reasonably be doubted, but as the enterprise is a Government one, the bulk of the capital being public money, it is not surprising that a mandarin should be pitchforked into the office. So long as the China 'Merchants' Company is an official monopoly so long will it have a hampered career, while private enterprise will at the same time be checked, to the great detriment of native trade generally.

On Tuesday we were entertained with a grand display of torpedoes at "Haikn," noor Tientsin. boing the annual inspection of the students of the Imperial Torpedo College by H.E. Li Hung chang. A straight reach of the main river was selected, about a mile in length, and all heat traffic stopped for the day. The students had been busy for two or three previous days laving down cables, joining up torpedoes, &c.; and when H.E. arrived at the appointed time many thousands of spectators had assembled on the banks and house tops commanding a view of the situation. The work carried out was a representation on a minor scale of the defence of the channel at Taku. A chart was drawn out showing the position of each torpedo; and they vere fired in the order given by H.E. at the sounding of a bugle. As the last notes of the bugle died away the first charge exploded, throwing up an immense column of water in the air. the height of three or four hundred feet this was immediately followed by five other explosions, forming the outer line of defence. On the next word of command, seven torpedoes were simultaneously fired throwing up a tremendous body of water and shaking the place as by an earthquake; these were followed by seven orpedoes fired singly; after which contact tor-

The experiments were concluded by an array of five tornedo boats advancing in line, each armed with two fifty pound spar tornedoes, which, wheeling round a fing representing an imaginary enemy's ship, lannched their torpedoes and fired at a given ignal. The boats rose with the unbeaving stream and were instantly hidden from view by the large volume of water thrown up. Although tired out with ten hours. continual work, one of the men remained underwater three minutes and two seconds, and most of them over two minutes. This was nothing

REPORT AND ACCOUNTS OF THE CHINA MERCHANTS' S. N. CO.

The following are the Report and Accounts of he C.M.S.N. Co. from the seventh moon of the 3rd year of Knang sh (9th August, 1877) to the end of the sixth moon of the 4th year (29th July. It is now five yours since the Directors had the nonour to receive instructions from the Earl L to undertake the management of the Company and at the end of each year a Report and Accounts have been carefully drawn up in the hope that the Shareholders would thus be induced to make themselves aggnainted therewith. This year, reckening from the seventh moon of last year to the end of the sixth moon of the present. th total earnings of the Company as freight have been over Tis. 2,300,000, and from this it would ennear that the greatest exertions to struct business have been made, and also a large balance of profit secured. Still after deducting the expenses, and allowing for dividend on shares, and loterest on horrowed money, loss was unavoidable Some persons, in order to throw doubt on the management of the Company, will say that it has not been of the most satisfactory nature, but whole of India, unless promptly avenged, may we have been so hampered that our task has been a difficult one.

In the first place we made no agreement with croign merchants regarding the Ningpo and Yangtaze trades immediately after our balance last year. By the time an agreement was como to, the year was cuded, so that during half of the year under review we suffered considerable losses. Then there have been sources of loss which our shareholders are ignorant of. In the beginning of the minth moon; of last year (October), we received commends to convey to Tientsin rice for the relief of Honan and Shansi. At that time oc. there was a rush on the part of our clients to ship all kinds of grain which had been sul scribed by the public for the relief of the famine sufferers and the Company's steamers were insufficient to meet the demand. To assist in the conveyance of the grain, foreign vessels had to be chartered, and the expense of hiring them was great. Besides, when the river was closed on the advance of the winter season, goods had to be landed at Taku, and the additional expenditure for the Jowaki campaign. in cart and coolie hire necessitated by the tranmort to Tientsin was enormous. Nay more, ip the item of Government grain-transport our supplementary allowance of rice, after measuring. vas a small one, because the rice grains had been somewhat damped by the excessive rains. We had also to make money contributions out of our freight earnings to relief of distress in the three different provinces of Fokien. Shansi and Honan, and it is a principle of Natural Lisw that the more one pays to another the less one has one's self... With regard to the insurance of our own ships y ourselves, it was agreed that commencing from the first moon of this year, there should be annually laid aside Tls, 150,000 from the In-Insurance Fund, to be used for the repayment of the advances of the public monies made to the Company. After writing off in full the value of the How-sang, there remains of the insurance receipts for the year over Tls. 72,500, and this may stand for the Tis, 75,000 which ought to be hid aside for the first half-year under the above arrangement, as the difference between the two sums is but triding. To provide funds for writing off the Kiang-chang, some other plan must be adopted. Of the five per cent; of the gross earnings devoted year after year to the expenses of the Head Office and the Branch Offices, the surplus remaining after defraying all expenses, has now been passed into the General Account. In accordance with the official memorial, a dividend of 5 per cent, will be paid to the Shareholders. The remaining 5 per cent, will be retained and Shareholders invited to take additional stock for it. The accounts have been made up as before and submitted, according to law to the Ministers Superintendent of Trade. and distributed to the branch offices at Tientein Hongkong, Fooohow, Canton, and Hankow. We beg the Shareholders in the vicinity of each of these places to inspect them, so that they may have a thorough insight into the Company's
